

Looking for a new career?

Consider a career in the health service and be part of the NHS's future.

Working with leading healthcare providers in the Southend area, we're here to provide eligible local people with exciting training and skills opportunities for a wide variety of roles.

Who knows where a career in healthcare will take you?

Find out more and gain immediate access to career advice.

Our partners:

South Essex Community Hub

Help with digital support and to start thinking about work in the health sector

Generation Medics

A virtual healthcare academy and immersive virtual work experience

PAVE and HALO

Online courses focused on getting you into health jobs

A Better Start Southend Work Skills

Helping parents and families of younger children to consider healthcare work